2. General conditions of license

2.1. Applicable acts and directives: This license shall be governed by the provisions of the Major Port Trusts Act, 1963, Indian Ports Act, 1908, Policy Guidelines for Land Management for Major Ports and all directives issued by the Government of India from time to time. It shall be binding upon the licensee to comply with all such directives issued by the Government of India and communicated by the Licensor.

2.2. Site inspection: It would be deemed that prior to submission of bid, the bidder has made a complete and careful study of the existing conditions including but not limited to (a) the site conditions; (b) condition of building/structure (c) condition of the access road & surroundings and has assessed the extent of the work/construction requirements to utilize the allotted space for utilization. It is also deemed that they are fully aware of all the applicable laws and applicable permits pertaining to the purpose for which they intent to use the premises. The Port Trust shall not be liable for any mistake or error or neglect by the bidder in respect of the above. The tendered asset is offered on as-is where-is basis. The bidder is expected to examine carefully the contents of the bid documents, including but not limited to the terms and conditions in the format of license deed given at section 7.

2.3. Provisional allotment order: On acceptance of bid by Cochin Port Trust, a Pre-acceptance letter will be issued to the successful bidder, for remitting ONRP and security deposit.

2.4. ONRP: Successful bidder has to pay ONRP as quoted in the tender plus GST, within one month of date of issue of Pre-acceptance letter. The said premium is non-refundable under any circumstances.

2.5. Security Deposit (SD): The successful bidder should pay 6 months' license fee at the prevailing SOR as non interest bearing refundable security deposit for the duration of the license. As and when any deduction is made from the security deposit, or if the license fee is revised/increased, the licensee shall within a period of one month, deposit with the CoPT as additional security deposit such further amounts as will make the total security deposit equal to 6 months' then prevailing license fee. The security deposit so paid shall be refundable without interest, after adjustment of any dues including but not limited to any arrears of license fee or other amounts due to the Licensor and/or damages to the Premises, at the time of handing over vacant possession of the licensed premises on the expiry or termination of the license.

2.6. Mode of Payment: All payments to Cochin Port Trust shall be made through e-payment or by Demand Draft drawn in favour of the Financial Advisor & Chief Accounts Officer, Cochin Port Trust, from State Bank of India or any of its subsidiaries/ Nationalized Banks/ Scheduled Banks.

2.7. Bank Details of Cochin Port Trust for e-payment
State Bank of India, Cochin Port Trust Branch,
A/c No.10601197375, IFS Code – SBIN0006367.

2.8. Allotment order: A joint survey, if required, will be conducted after remitting the above payments. All the applicable payments will be regulated in accordance with the measurements as per the Joint Survey. Allotment Order will be issued on receipt of final payments for which receipts for all applicable payments shall be submitted to the CoPT Estate office.

2.9. Execution of deed: The licensee shall execute and get registered a license deed within two months from the date of allotment order as per the format given at Section-7. Cochin Port Trust shall be entitled to cancel/terminate the allotment if the licensee does not execute the license deed within three (3) months from the date of issue of allotment order. Cost of stamp paper and all cost and expenses for execution of license deed shall be borne by the successful bidder.

2.10. Taking over of property and commencement of license: The property will be handed over on the date of execution of License Deed, and the license period of 5 years will commence from the said date. Failure to take over the licensed property on the above date will not entitle the licensee for commencing the license period. Sketches and area given is approximate and there may be marginal variations in the extent of area and locations.

2.11. Scope of license: What is tendered and allotted under this tender is only a license to use the property and the licensee does not have the right to possess the property to the exclusion of Cochin Port Trust. The property is only temporarily allotted on license basis for the period stated in the final allotment order, starting from the date as stated in section 2.10 of this document. The license is not automatically renewable. Any further extension, if at all, is at the sole discretion of the Port Administration. Allotment of property does not in any manner confer on the licensee any right whatsoever over continued occupation / stay in the licensed property. Cochin Port Trust reserves the right to terminate the license at any time after giving one month's notice for vacating the property.

2.12. License fee payable: The base rate of monthly license fee for Office Space, as per the Scale of Rates (SOR) effective from 21.08.2016 approved by the Tariff Authority for Major Ports (TAMP) is Rs.174.00/- per Sq m which gets escalated cumulatively @ 2% annually (1st April). Accordingly, the present rate (FY 2021-22) for office space is Rs.190.63/- per Sq m per month plus GST as applicable. The SOR undergo revision once every five (5) years and the monthly charges will be based on the then existing Scale of Rates. The licensee shall pay the applicable license fee for every month as per SOR to the Financial Adviser & Chief Accounts Officer, Cochin Port Trust, on or before 10th day of every month. In the case of licensee who has deposit account with the port, license fee will be debited to their deposit account.

2.13. Eviction of licensee for default in payment: If the licensee does not make payment within the due date, invoice amount will be deducted from the security deposit and the licensee has to replenish the security deposit immediately. If such licensee fails to make payment of license fee for two months or if the security deposit available with CoPT fall below an amount equivalent of five months license fee, Cochin Port Trust shall initiate eviction proceedings against the licensee.

2.14. Electrical energy charges: During the term of tenancy the licensee shall pay electrical energy charges consumed as shown in the Meter readings and also such rent as may be stipulated for the meter installation at the rates notified by the Port Trust, from time to time. The charges should be paid every month within 7 days on demand, failing which the connection will be disconnected on the 8th day without any notice. The restoration of electricity connection thereafter shall be done only after payment of restoration charges or such other charges as communicated by the Dy. Chief Mechanical Engineer (Electrical).

2.15. Water Charges: During the term of tenancy the licensee shall pay for fresh water used or consumed as shown in the Meter readings at the rates, notified by the Port Trust, from time to time. The charges should be paid every month within 10 days on demand failing which the connection will be disconnected on the 11th day without any notice.

2.16. Deducting payment due from Security Deposit: If the licensee defaults in payment of the license fee at any time, necessary adjustments shall be made by the Cochin Port Trust from the amount of security deposit and the licensee shall immediately make up the corresponding deficit in the security deposit.

2.17. Payment of taxes, charges, and assessments: The licensee shall from time to time and at all times during the term of license pay and discharge all rates, taxes, charges, and assessments of every description now subsisting, including arrears if any, accrued or due after the date of commencement of the term of license, or which may at any time hereafter during the said term, be imposed, charged or assessed upon the licensed property, whether it be payable by the licensor or Cochin Port Trust.

2.18. Penal Interest for delayed payment: The Licensee shall be bound to pay interest on all overdue payments from the date when the same becomes due, at the rate as specified in the Scale of Rates for the time being in force and as revised from time to time, it being made clear that the liability for payment of interest shall not affect the other rights accruing to Cochin Port Trust on account of such defaults on the part of the Licensee.

2.19. Right to enter the licensed property: The Authorized officials of the Port with or without workmen or others will have the liberty to enter the licensed property at all times to view the conditions and state thereof or for any other reason.

2.20. Disconnection of utility services: Cochin Port Trust reserves the right to disconnect electricity & water connection and stop all port related services to the Licensee in the event of non-payment of any of the dues as stated above and the licensee shall be solely responsible for any loss or damage arising out of this. Port will not be held liable for any loss or damage arising out of the disconnection of electricity and water connection on account of non-remittance of dues within the stipulated time.

2.21. Utilisation and up keeping of licensed property:

2.21.1. The licensee shall undertake the required repairs, maintenance, furnishing, flooring, painting, etc. at their cost at the initial time as well as time to time to use the property. Required repairs and maintenance to the common wash room facilities in the building also to be under taken by the allottee(s)/user(s) in the building. The Licensee shall use the licensed property only for the purpose(s) for which the licensed property has been allotted/ licensed, unless otherwise approved by Cochin Port Trust. If it is noticed that the Building / open space is being used for the purposes other than what has been specifically permitted then the license shall be terminated without further notice at the risk and cost of the licensee. Permanent construction shall not be allowed in the licensed open property.

2.21.2. The licensee shall not make any unnecessary excavation or remove or appropriate any minerals, mineral substances of any description, sand or clay, from the licensed property. Any such materials obtained from the licensed property should be placed or disposed of as directed by the Chief Engineer, Cochin Port Trust or his/ authorized representative.

2.21.3. The licensee should obtain prior approval of the Chief Engineer before making any alterations / modifications / additions to the structures / buildings / space so licensed. All plans for the development of licensed property shall be got approved by the Chief Engineer, Cochin Port Trust. Any alterations / modifications / additions to the structures / buildings / space done without the prior approval of the Chief Engineer will be treated as violation of the license condition and the license would be liable to be terminated without notice, at the risk and cost of the licensee. The plan should also be got approved by the Local Authority concerned before commencement of any work.

2.21.4. The licensee at all times during subsistence of the license shall carry out the painting of the property every block of two years in a uniform colour, failing which Cochin Port Trust will do the same and the actual expenditure incurred will be recovered from the license.

2.21.5. The licensee shall have quiet and peaceful use of the licensed property, subject to their fulfilling the terms and conditions contained herein, however without in any matter compromising the right of the Cochin Port Trust to enter the property.

2.21.6. The licensee shall utilize the maximum permissible area of the Licensed property for purpose for which it is allotted. If the licensee does not or is not able to utilize the entire licensed property licensed to him, the portion of the licensed property not required by him should be vacated without any liability for payment of compensation. If the licensee fails to adhere to the same or the licensee does not vacate the unutilized portion of the licensed property, Cochin Port Trust shall have the right to takeover complete possession without any claim for compensation whatsoever, the whole or part of the portion of the licensed property left unutilized and use the same in any manner deemed expedient by Cochin Port Trust.

2.21.7. The Licensee shall not at any time without the previous consent in writing of the Cochin Port Trust erect or suffer to be erected on the licensed property any structure(s) other than those approved by Cochin Port Trust or make any alteration in the plan or elevation of the said buildings or use the licensed property for any purpose other than that approved by Cochin Port Trust.

2.21.8. The licensee shall obtain all statutory and mandatory clearances as may be required under law including environmental clearances from appropriate authorities, before undertaking any activity and from time to time thereafter and also comply with all the norms as laid down by these statutory authorities.

2.21.9. It shall be the responsibility of the licensee to keep the surroundings adjoining their property clean and devoid of any wild growth or waste. The Licensee shall at all times during the subsistence of the license maintain the Licensed property in good sanitary condition and repair and keep the building(s)/structure(s) in the Licensed property in good and tenantable condition. If the Licensee fails to do so, Cochin Port Trust may, if necessary, arrange for execution of necessary works to maintain the licensed property and shall be entitled to recover the costs incurred for the execution of such works from the licensee.

2.21.10. The licensee shall keep the Port informed when any toxic or hazardous cargo is warehoused in the licensed property. Such cargo shall be warehoused only after obtaining all statutory sanctions and producing copies of the same before the CE/Secretary.

2.22. Indemnifying Cochin Port Trust: Cochin Port Trust shall not be responsible to the licensee or any other person(s) for any loss or damage or injury to life or property arising directly or indirectly from the use of the licensed property and the activities the licensee is engaged in on the licensed property during the period of License. The licensee shall also indemnify Cochin Port Trust against all loss or damage or injury to life or property of anyone, including third parties or claims and costs thereof arising directly or indirectly from the use of the licensed property by the licensee and the activities the licensee is engaged in the licensed property, due to any defect or any act or default of any employees of the port or any other person during the period of license.

2.23. Applicable laws: License shall be governed by provisions of the Major Port Trusts Act, 1963, Indian Ports Act, 1908, Policy Guidelines for Land Management for Major Ports and all directives issued by the Government of India from time to time. It shall be binding upon the Licensee to comply with all such directives issued by the Government of India and communicated by Cochin Port Trust to the licensee.

2.24. Utility services: If, on request in writing by the licensee, Cochin Port Trust removes/relays/re-routes or causes removal/relay/re-routing of any utility services such as underground or overhead electric lines, telegraphic or telephonic lines, water pipelines, drains etc., from the licensed property, the licensee shall pay the Cochin Port Trust the cost of such removal within fourteen days from the date on which demand in writing for such cost is served on the licensee. Cochin Port Trust shall be entitled to allow any public utility services such as electric posts, or cables, water supply, sewer lines, drains, sanitary lines or telegraph post or cables, to be taken through the licensed property and the licensees shall not be entitled to any compensation in respect of the same, including compensation, if any, relating to the space occupied by such public utility services. Provided that while allowing such public utility services to be taken through the Licensed property, only the minimum possible hindrance shall be caused to other structures in the Licensed property.

2.25. Payment for damages: The Licensee shall pay for any damage done by him/it or his/its Employees/workers or agents during the license period to any property of Cochin Port Trust on the licensed property or land adjacent thereto.

2.26. Erecting Hoarding/advertisement board: Hoarding or advertisement board shall not be erected in the licensed property without the written permission of the Licensor.

2.27. Entry into the licensed property: Cochin Port Trust and their authorized agents shall be entitled to enter the licensed property at any time and inspect the same.

2.28. Ban on underletting/sublease/ assigning/transfer: The Licensee shall not underlet, sublease, assign or transfer the licensed property or the building(s)/structure(s) in the licensed property. The licensee shall not create any charge in respect of the licensed property. Any under-letting/ sublease/ assigning/ transfer or creating charge of the licensed property or any part thereof shall be treated as unauthorized and the license shall be terminated without further notice at the risk and cost of the licensee. Licensee shall pay the penal rent at the rate of thrice the normal rent for the period of such unauthorized sublease/under-letting/assigning/transfer.

2.29. Termination of license

2.29.1. Early termination by licensee: The licensee may terminate the license at any time before the expiry of the license period by giving one month's prior notice in writing to Cochin Port Trust. The license can also be terminated by the licensee any time by paying one month's license fee at the then prevailing rate. Licensee shall be entitled to remove all structures/ fixtures which at any time during the currency of this license shall have been erected or fixed by the licensee upon the licensed property, without any claim or compensation whatsoever and vacate the licensed property to Cochin Port Trust.

2.29.2. Early termination by Cochin Port Trust: Cochin Port Trust shall be entitled to cancel the license either in respect of the whole licensed property or any part thereof, with improvements thereon, if any, before the expiry of the license period, if the licensed property or part thereof is required for Port's development purposes / activities. In such case, Cochin Port Trust shall give one month's prior notice to the licensee. In that event, the licensee shall be entitled to corresponding remission of the license fee where applicable. Licensee shall not be entitled for any compensation. The Port will not be held liable for any loss arising on this account.

2.29.3. Termination for default in payment: If the licensee makes default in payment of the license fee or electricity charges or water charges or cargo related charges or vessel related charges or interest on delayed payment of dues or any other dues, Cochin Port Trust shall be entitled to terminate and cancel the license forthwith. The licensee shall thereupon forfeit all his/its rights on the property and shall remain liable for any sum then due by the licensee and also for any loss, which may be caused to Cochin Port Trust by reasons of such default.

2.29.4. Termination on breach of conditions: Cochin Port Trust shall be entitled to terminate the license at the risk and cost of the licensee in the event of violation of any of the terms and conditions of the license by the licensee, which is not rectified within a period of thirty days of a notice issued in this behalf by Cochin Port Trust.

Upon any breach or non-observance by the licensee of any of the covenants or conditions of license, Cochin Port Trust may enter upon the licensed property and takeover complete possession of it, as if this license had not been granted and thereupon the license shall absolutely determine and Cochin Port Trust shall be entitled within fifteen days from the date of such re-entry, to remove all structures and fixtures which at any time during the currency of this license shall have been erected or affixed by the licensee upon the licensed property, without any claim to any compensation whatsoever.

2.29.5. Termination on insolvency/bankruptcy: Cochin Port Trust shall be entitled to cancel/terminate the license before expiry of license period if the licensee is declared insolvent or bankrupt or is unable to pay its debts or makes a composition with its creditors or if a trustee, liquidator, receiver or administrator is appointed to take over the assets or the business or the undertaking of the licensee or if a substantial portion of the assets, property, revenues or business of the licensee is confiscated or expropriated by the Government (Central or State) or any governmental agency or third party orif the law relating to the sick companies applies to the licensee or the licensee is dissolved or wound up or if an order shall be made or an effective resolution is passed for the winding up of the licensee or the licensee is reconstituted or the business or operations of the licensee is closed either due to disputes inter-se amongst its stakeholders or otherwise.

2.29.6. Termination on public interest: Cochin Port Trust shall be entitled to terminate the license before expiry of License period on account of public interest.

2.30. Expiry of license: On expiry of the license period the licensee shall vacate the licensed property restoring it to its former condition.

2.31. Restoration of licensed property: Upon expiry or termination of the license for any reason whatsoever, the licensee shall remove the structures erected or other improvements made by him/it on the licensed property without any claim to compensation whatever and restore the licensed property to its original condition, within such time as directed by Cochin Port Trust. If the licensee does not remove the structures and fixtures erected thereon or restore the licensed property to its original condition as required and within the time prescribed, Cochin Port Trust shall have the right to remove the said structures and fixtures and restore the licensed property to its original condition and the cost of such removal and restoration shall be realized from the sale of materials and the balance, if any, from the licensee. In case there is any amount left from the sale price of the materials so removed, after realization of the cost of removal and restoration referred to herein, the same may be utilized by Cochin Port Trust for recovery of any other amounts that may be due to the Cochin Port Trust from the Licensee.

2.32. Penalty for unauthorised occupation: After the expiry or earlier termination of license if the licensee continues to occupy the licensed property, such occupation shall be unauthorized and without prejudice to the right of Cochin Port Trust to evict the licensee for such unauthorized occupation, the licensee shall be liable to pay compensation for wrongful use and occupation at three times the monthly license fee applicable.

2.33. Penalty for breach of license conditions: If the Licensee commits any breach or violates any terms and conditions of allotment, Cochin Port Trust may, without prejudice to its right to terminate the license, impose appropriate penalty on the licensee depending upon the nature/ magnitude of breach/ violation. Such penalty may be imposed after giving a reasonable opportunity to the licensee to present his case.

2.34. In the event of any disputes the decision of the Chairman, Cochin Port Trust shall be final and binding to the parties.

1.1. The Licensee has paid to the Licensor as one time premium for the License of the licensed premises an amount of Rs……..(Rupees……only) plus GST the said premium being non refundable under any circumstances.

1.2. The Licensee shall pay the Licensor during the said term monthly license fee applicable for Covered Space for Office Accommodation as per the Scale of Rates (SoR) of Cochin Port Trust, approved by the Tariff Authority for Major Ports (TAMP). The base rate as on 21.08.2016 as approved by the TAMP is Rs.174/- per Sq m per month, which after applicable escalation of 2% per annum, is Rs.190.63/- as in 2021-22, and accordingly, the current license fee per month for the property is Rs.----------/- (Rupees ---------- only). The rate is subject to annual escalation of 2% and periodical revisions in the SoR, normally, once every five years by the TAMP or any other Competent Authority. The Licensee shall be liable to pay any increased fee calculated on the basis of the Scale of Rates approved by TAMP from time to time.

1.3. The Licensee has deposited with the Licensor as Security Deposit towards license fee an amount of Rs……..(Rupees……only) equivalent to 6 months current license fee, the receipt of which the Licensor hereby acknowledges. As and when the license fee is revised / increased, the licensee shall deposit with licensor an additional security deposit or such further amount as will make the total security deposit equal to 6 months then license fee. The security deposit so paid shall be refundable without interest, after adjustment of any dues including but not limited to any arrears of license fee or other amounts due to the Licensor and/or damage to the premises, at the time of handing over vacant possession of the licensed premises on the expiry or termination of the License.

1.4. The License fee for every month, at the rates prevailing as per Scale of Rates (SoR), should be paid in advance to the Ports Financial Advisor & Chief Accounts Officer, CoPT by the Licensee, on or before the 10th day of every month.

1.5. If the Licensee defaults in payment of the license fee at any time, necessary adjustments shall be made by the Licensor from the amount of security deposit and the Licensee shall immediately make up the corresponding deficit in the security deposit.

1.6. The Licensee shall from time to time and at all times during the said term, pay and discharge all rates, taxes, charges towards electricity and water, and assessments of every description now subsisting, including arrears, or which may at any time hereafter during the said term, be imposed, charged or assessed upon the licensed premises.

1.7. The Licensee shall be bound to pay interest on all overdue payments from the date when the same becomes due at the rate as specified in the Scale of Rates for the time being in force, and as revised from time to time, subject to a minimum of Rs.100/- (Rupees one hundred only), it being made clear that the liability for payment of interest shall not affect the other rights accruing to the Licensor on account of such defaults on the part of the Licensee.

1.8. If the Licensee makes default in payment of the License fee, electricity & water charges, cargo and vessels related charges, or any other dues to the Licensor under this Agreement or otherwise and/or interest as provided hereinbefore, the Licensor shall be entitled to terminate this agreement and cancel the License forthwith and takeover complete possession of the office space. The Licensee shall thereupon forfeit all his/its rights hereunder and shall remain liable for any sum then due by the Licensee and also for any loss which may be caused to the Licensor by reasons of such default. The Licensor also reserves the right to disconnect electricity & water connection and stop all port related services to the Licensee in the event of non-payment of any of the dues as stated above and the Licensee shall be solely responsible for any loss or damage arising out of this.

1.9. The Licensee shall execute and get registered the License deed within two months from the date of issue of allotment order. The property will be handed over with effect from the date of registration of the License Deed.

2.1. The Licensee shall use the Licensed premises only for the purpose(s) ie. …… for which the licensed premises has been allotted/ Licensed, unless otherwise approved by the Licensor failure of which may lead to termination of the License.

2.2. Any rearrangements of the allotted space in the licensed premises shall be done by the Licensee without damaging the structural strength of the premises and only after prior approval of the Civil Engineering Department, of the Licensor.

2.3. If the Licensee does not or is not able to utilize the entire area of the licensed premises, the portion of the licensed premises not required by him should be vacated without any liability for payment of compensation. If the Licensee fails to vacate the unutilized portion of the Licensed premises, the Licensor shall have the right to takeover complete possession without any claim for compensation whatsoever, the whole or part of the portion of the licensed premises left unutilized and use the same in any manner deemed expedient by the Licensor.
